Next Friday at Huntingburg

Come on!

Let's all go!

The whole county'll be there! Why? It's the big Centennial! Let's make one good day of it. Let's help make it an event we'll all remember.

This will beat any attraction ever pulled off in our neighboring town.

Jasper are going to turn out en masse. Even the babies are going over.

It will be a well beaten road between Jasper and Huntingburg. Boone, Madison, Harbison, Columbia, Marion and Bainbridge townships will be there. "Howdy, neighbors; we're glad to see you all!"

Let's help the old county do itself proud at Huntingburg Friday of next week. Jasper's going to surprise the Huntingburgers when she heads in alright, and don't you forget it.

We notice that the Mayor of Huntingburg has issued a proclamation inviting everybody in the county to go to Huntingburg. And now that his Honor says so himself, we know that all of us will be welcome.

See our mayor stand shoulder with his Honor at the 'burg and then you'll realize that the only two cities in the county have some leaders, alright, alright.

Watch Jasper shine! See her clubs of beautiful girls and women in gala attire. Take a long look at the handsome gentlemen as they enlist in Company K, and march off to war! "tramp, tramp, tramp." The Boys are Marching, around the court house square in rehearsal. In their handsome new uniforms they'll show up like the veterans they are when they take their places in the first pageant this county ever put on.

Yes, let's all go over. Pull down the blinds, let the cook stove get cold, lock up the town for a day and help our neighbors to do honor to all of us as well as to themselves. We know they will appreciate our company, because they have said so, and are expecting us. So let's not disappoint them lest we also be disappointed.

"The Southern Railway will, on Sunday, September 24, 1916, operate a special train excursion from Louisville, Ky., New Albany, Ind., Corydon, Ind., Raussey, Ind., DePauw, Ind., Milltown, Ind. M. arrive at Jasper 10:50 A. M. and returning leave Jasper 7:15 P. M. and Huntingburg at 7:55 P. M."

Many a "Grouch"

Could Be Glad

Too often a person's disposition is blamed, when it is his digestion that is at fault. Some time when the world looks blue and dingy, when you feel an irresistible impulse to snarl and snarl when you feel dull and gloomy, stuffed up and uncomfortable—with a mean headache, bilious stomach, furred tongue—then take a Foley Cathartic Tablet.

If your bowels are sluggish, if your intestines are clogged with a decomposing poisonous mass, if you are not eliminating properly, this little tablet will afford prompt, sure and safe relief without griping, pain, nausea or colic effects.

Foley Cathartic Tablets are a genuinely wholesome physic—an ideal laxative. They keep the system fit and fine, purged of poisons, and ready to resist disease. Stout people say they have no equal for bringing a light and free feeling.

Sold by druggists everywhere. Distributed by Foley & Co., Chicago, makers of the celebrated Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs and colds.
